CM YS Jaganmohan Reddy Grants Rs. 500 DA To Village Revenue Assistants

Association Expresses Gratitude

Tadepalli, Andhra Pradesh, India, 01.09.2023, 15:12 Time

USPA NEWS - The representatives said that this decision will undoubtedly have a positive impact on the 23,000 VRAs who will benefit from this increase in their allowance. This move by the government is acknowledging the hard work and contributions of VRAs to their communities.

In a significant move, Chief Minister YS Jaganmohan Reddy's government has approved a Rs. 500 Dearness Allowance (DA) for Village Revenue Assistants (VRAs) across the state. Representatives from the VRAs' association conveyed their heartfelt thanks during a meeting at the Tadepalli camp office. They praised the Chief Minister for his decision, emphasizing its positive impact on 23,000 VRAs. Among those expressing their appreciation were State President Garikapati Brahmaiah, Vice Presidents G.T. Ramanjaneyulu and B. Venkatarao, along with Treasurer Chennupalli Satyanarayana. This move underscores the government's commitment to supporting essential grassroots services.

The representatives said that this decision will undoubtedly have a positive impact on the 23,000 VRAs who will benefit from this increase in their allowance. This move by the government is acknowledging the hard work and contributions of VRAs to their communities.

This increase in the Dearness Allowance is likely to improve the livelihoods of VRAs and contribute to their overall well-being. It's a positive step towards recognizing and rewarding their efforts in serving the state's rural areas.
